Enrolment in Italian as a foreign language courses (L2/LS) for international students that are NOT ON ERASMUS exchange programs

If you wish to enrol in Italian as a foreign language course starting between October – December, you must follow the process below:

a) Students submitting a university qualification certifying their proficiency in Italian within 1st September 2017:

- Within 1st September 2017 you need to log in to the webpage http://clacourses.unimc.it (with the username and password you received upon registration with the university online services) and upload your university qualification certifying your proficiency in Italian.

  Please note: Documents are to be dated before 1st January 2015 and issued by the university of origin or by one of the internationally recognized certifying bodies below: *Università per Stranieri di Perugia, Università per Stranieri di Siena, Università Roma 3, Società Dante Alighier*i.

- You will receive a reply by the Centro Linguistico di Ateneo (CLA). If the qualification is not validated, you will have to take the placement test (see test registration as specified below). If the qualification is validated, the CLA will reply specifying which course of the CEFR you may join: you then have to confirm your enrolment by e-mail. In the latter case, the CLA will complete your enrolment.

  b) Students having to take the placement test
  (no qualification certifying level of proficiency in Italian to be submitted within 1st September 2017 or to be validated by the Centro Linguistico di Ateneo (CLA)).

- Within 21 August – 11 September 2017 you need to log in to the test webpage http://moodle.unimc.it (with the username and password you received upon registration with the university online services), take the placement test and, upon completion, you will be redirected to the courses webpage http://clacourses.unimc.it that will enable you to join the relevant course on the basis of your test result.

For any problems in the enrolment process write to segreteria.cla@unimc.it